

WE NEED YOUR

CORPORATE SUPPORT

help us to make the journey towards a brighter future

The Imps is a non-profit making organisation that educates young people through a disciplined, dynamic and challenging programme of activities with a world renowned motorcycle display team at it's heart.

A corporate sponsorship is good for us and good for you to maintain this quality social project to the very highest standards and will cost as little as £1,000 for each rider.

We are asking you to sponsor an individual rider. For less than £2.75 a day you could help achieve this and in doing so, gain worldwide exposure for your business.

Seen by more than 100 million TV viewers at the Edinburgh Military Tattoo.

The Imps are a 'flagship' youth organisation, open to all, who are in support of mainstream education, dedicated to the development of citizenship within young people.

Supporting the worlds most incredible youth motorcycle display team couldn't be easier

Their proven track record spans more than thirty years and has delivered innumerable personal success stories as well as creating an aspirational example to millions of young people beyond their immediate membership.

The Imps have performed around the world and their regular appearances on prime time television, along with displays at major events and nationwide and international press coverage, has secured a reputation for excellence. Extraordinary discipline and incredible teamwork enable The Imps to deliver shows comprising of complex 'cross-overs' requiring split second timing, breathtaking fire jumps and visually stunning pyramids of red tunics – all served up with a dash of humour and aided by the spell-binding mini Imps mascots.

The Imps Corporate Support scheme has been set up primarily to support the Imps team but it will also be invaluable in promoting your company name. The Imps will proudly carry your name around the world with them, positively reflecting your core brand values and exposing them through vehicle and equipment branding, partnership sponsor programmes and PR leverage.

We would be delighted if you were able to lend your support and very much hope to hear from you. Just think, for less than £2.75 a day you can promote your company and really make a difference to the Imps!
